Todos Santos, is a special lot from a group of women called “Mujeres luchando por un mejor futuro,” or “Women fighting for a better future”. In short, their fight has been against all of the challenges that women face working in coffee, from discrimination to limited access to resources. Through perseverance and hard work they are achieving great things in coffee and this lot bears witness!

Fresh off the grind the aromatics are toffee sweet. The cup is wonderfully balanced with a bright malic acidity complimenting notes of pink lady apple and ripe pear, all wrapped up in a medium full body. If there is not enough to love already, this coffee is also grown organically. Grab a bag and know you are supporting a group of women changing the culture of coffee in Cuchumatanes!
